

Politics, Philosophy and Public Affairs

Until in-class activities resume, third-term courses will be organized through e-learning methods as specified in the following table:

Course	Instructor	Planned activity	Details
Economy and Society: Past, Present and Perspectives	Alberto Martinelli alberto.martinelli@unimi.it	– Online meetings via MS Teams	Students interested in attending the course should contact: alberto.martinelli@unimi.it
Migrations, Diversity and Non-Discrimination	Olivia Bonardi olivia.bonardi@unimi.it	– Audio-slides – Online discussion via MS Teams – Online group working via MS Teams	Instructions on how to attend online meetings will be available on the Ariel website of the course
Migrations, Diversity and Non-Discrimination	Manlio Cinalli manlio.cinalli@unimi.it	– Audio-slides – Online discussion via Skype or MS Teams – Online group working via MS Teams	Instructions on how to attend online meetings will be available on the Ariel website of the course
The Western Tradition: Moral and Political Values	Marco Geuna marco.geuna@unimi.it	– Make-up classes for suspended second-term lectures: online meetings via MS Teams	The calendar of online activities and instructions on how to attend online meetings will be available on the Ariel website of the course